Civil Writ Petition No.12363 of 2018

2. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner has joined respondent-department as A.L.M. on 30.05.1986 and he became entitled for the release of benefit of 23 years promotional increment on 30.05.2009 but no such benefit was granted to him till date though the similar relief has already been granted to the other employees of the State of Punjab. The petitioner stood retired on 30.09.2009 on attaining the age of superannuation i.e. 58 years. The petitioner being aggrieved of the non-disbursal of the benefits of 23 years promotional increment was constrained to serve legal notice upon the respondents on 19.03.2018 (P-5), but till date no response has been received. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioner feels satisfied in case a direction is given to respondent No.2, to decide the aforesaid legal notice (P-5), within a stipulated period.

3. Without expressing any opinion on merits of the case but considering the aforesaid aspects as has been unfolded by the learned counsel for the petitioner, instant petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to look into the grievances unfolded by the petitioner in legal notice dated 19.03.2018 (P-5) and take a conscious decision within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order, particularly in the light of the instructions as well as the judgments referred to above in para 1 of this order. In case, competent authorities come to the conclusion that petitioner is entitled to the relief(s) claimed, it shall stand restricted to 38 months in view of Full Bench judgment of this Court in case “Saroj Kumari vs. State of Punjab & ors., 1998 (3) SCT 664”.

4. As far as grant of interest on delayed payment is concerned that shall also be considered in view of judgment passed by Full Bench of this
