Annexure P-15, which has been impugned before us does not show any cause that can be agitated before the Court. The petitioner has been asked to apply afresh for his case to be considered in terms of the policy of the Housing Board to condone the illegal construction or violations in the building occupied by him. As on today, no order has been passed. The petitioner will, therefore, follow the course advised by virtue of Annexure P-15 and in the event of any order adverse to him being passed, he would have the liberty to assail the same in accordance with law.

Petition stands disposed of.
