The petitioner is aggrieved with the modification of the interim order as revision petition is pending and proceedings of the case has already attained finality. In spite of specific direction issued by this Court in CWP No.25785 of 2017, the claim has been considered and interim order has been modified.

Learned counsel further submits that the revision petition is abuse of process of law and direction be issued to decide the revision petition within the stipulated period.

Keeping in view the limited prayer made by learned counsel for the petitioner, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.1 to decide the pending revision petition within a period of two months only.
