CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE G.S.SANDHAWALIA

Present: Mr.Raman Sharma, Advocate, for the petitioner.

G.S. SANDHAWALIA, J. (Oral)

Present petition has been filed to install new electricity connection in the first floor of House No.532-L, Model Town, Jalandhar, under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India.

As per the prayer clause itself, it is apparent that there is dispute since the mother of the petitioner is residing at the ground floor. There are further averments regarding family settlement entered into between the family members and no private respondents have been arrayed as party.

It is always open to the petitioner to approach the Civil Court for the necessary relief. The Writ Court is not to go into the disputed facts regarding the dispute inter se family members arising out of a family settlement and the extraordinary writ jurisdiction cannot be used for this purpose. Resultantly, the present writ petition is not maintainable.

Faced with this situation, counsel submits that he does not wish to press the present writ petition and prays that the same may be disposed of, as such, with liberty to avail his alternative remedy, to approach the competent authority, for the necessary relief.

Ordered accordingly.
