JASPAL SINGH, J (ORAL)

By virtue of instant petition preferred under Articles 226/227 of the Constitution of India, petitioner has sought a writ in the nature of mandamus directing the respondents to consider and grant him the benefit of work charged service towards his retiral benefits with further direction to release the arrears of salary and other dues after granting the afore-said benefit that too, with interest 12% per annum

2. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that petitioner has already deposited his share towards provident fund vide receipt dated 02.08.2012 (Annexure P-2) but till date no conscious decision has been taken. He further submits that he feels satisfied in case a direction is issued to respondents No.2 and 3 to decide the representation dated 28.12.2017 (P-3) in a time bound manner.

3. In view of submission made by learned counsel for the petitioner but without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, instant petition is disposed of with a direction the respondents particularly to respondents No.2 and 3 to look into the grievances unfolded by the petitioner in his representation dated 28.12.2017 (P-3) in accordance with law, rules and regulations within a period of three months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.

4. However, in case petitioner feels satisfied by any of the order(s) passed by the afore-said authorities, he shall be at liberty to have recourse to other remedies available under law including to approach this Court.
