The petitioners applied for allotment of a plot measuring one kanal in Sector-65, Faridabad in General Category. It appears that their application by mistake was included in the reserved category of GSRQ-A and they were successful in draw of lots but before the allotment letter was to be issued, the mistake was detected and the decision to allot the plot in the draw of lots was cancelled. The order to this effect was conveyed by the Estate Officer, HUDA, Faridabad way back on 21.04.2017. The aggrieved petitioners have now challenged that order.

In our considered view, such like issues can be resolved by the authorities within HUDA. The writ petition is thus disposed of with liberty to the petitioners to file appeal before the Chief Administrator, HUDA, Panchkula, who shall consider and decide the same in accordance with law within a period of four months from the date of its filing.
