CWP No.19956 of 2018

Date of Decision:-13.08.2018

Rani Kaur.

.....Petitioner.

Versus

State of Punjab & Ors.

.....Respondents.

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASWANT SINGH

Present:- Mr. S.K. Chawla, Advocate for the Petitioner.

JASWANT SINGH, J.(ORAL)

One Constable Satnam Singh and his wife died in an accident on 15.05.1995 leaving behind no dependant issue. The parents of the deceased Constable were granted family pension. Petitioner is the sister of Satnam Singh Constable and was of 13 years of age at the time of death of said Satnam Singh. She got married in the year 2008. In the year 2009 she applied for companionate appointment as a Constable on 15.11.2009 through her father Nand Singh. The petitioner was stated to have been called for trials, however, admittedly vide order dated 4.3.2010 (P-4) she was held to be not eligible for appointment on priority/compassionate basis being a married lady in view of the Policy dated 21.11.2002 (P-1).

After hearing learned Counsel for the petitioner, no case for interference is made out.

Firstly, the claim having been rejected in the year 2010 even a civil suit would not be maintainable. Secondly, there is no fraction of any of the provisions of the Policy P-1 even the plea that the dependants should also include married daughter cannot be countenanced as there is no challenge to the Policy P-1.

In view of the above, finding no merit in the present writ petition, the same is hereby dismissed.
