

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No. 22488 of 2018

Date of Decision: 06.09.2018.

Anik Bansal

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAKESH KUMAR JAIN

Present: Mr. Ravinder Bangar, Advocate for the petitioner.

RAKESH KUMAR JAIN, J. (ORAL)

The petitioner has prayed for extension of parole, already granted to him on 09.08.2018, on the ground of ill-health of his wife. The petitioner is suffering from sentence for two years in a case registered vide FIR No.280 dated 08.08.2009, under Sections 420, 468, 471, 506 & 120-B of the Indian Penal Code 1860, at Police Station Farakpur, District Yamuna Nagar. The petitioner is already on parole w.e.f. 09.08.2018 till 06.09.2018 and has to surrender today. He has made a prayer for extension of parole on the ground that his wife is suffering from Neurasthenia. In this regard, the petitioner has also placed on record the report of the Gaba Hospital, Yamuna Nagar (Annexure P-2). It is submitted that his wife was admitted in the said hospital on 25.08.2018 and discharged on 29.08.2018.

After hearing learned counsel for the petitioner and examining the available record, I am of the considered opinion that there is no merit in the present petition because the petitioner's wife is not an indoor patient, any more and in the aforesaid disease, the patient suffers from headache and numbness of face. For that matter, the petitioner cannot be allowed extension of parole which he had already obtained for a period of four weeks as of now.

In view thereof, the present petition is hereby dismissed being denuded of any merit, though without any order as to cost.
