Petitioner has preferred this petition seeking a mandamus for reconstituting Punjab State Road Safety Council. He has also sought removal of respondent No.9 on the plea that there are certain allegations against him.

On the last date of hearing, a copy of the petition was handed over to State counsel to enable him to assist. Today, he informs that respondent No.9 has since submitted his resignation from the council.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that his limited prayer has been rendered infructuous. He may be allowed to withdraw this petition.
