Mr. P.K.Longia, Advocate, for the respondents.RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (ORAL)

1. This case must receive the same dispensation and relief against the same employer in CWP No.11368 of 2012 titled 'Gian Chand & others Vs. Haryana Vidyut Parsaran Nigam Ltd. & others' decided on 22.04.2014, on the issue of regularization of services rendered for long years, wherein the following directions were issued:

“In view of the facts as mentioned above and also the fact that the petitioners are working for the last more than 15 years on part time basis; regular sanctioned posts as well as requirement of work is also there, the condition of appointment through employment exchange cannot be accepted at this stage. In case the work and conduct of the petitioners has been found satisfactory during last years then they should have been considered for regularization as per policy of the State Government which has been adopted by respondent-Nigam but still their claim has been rejected only on the ground that they were not appointed through employment exchange.”

2. The appeal filed against the order was dismissed by the Letters Patent Bench in LPA No.1126 of 2014. The case of the petitioners herein is covered by Gian Chand's case and is allowed in the same terms.

3. Accordingly, the petition is accepted and the impugned orders (Annex P-7 colly) are quashed. For the formalities to be completed, time for compliance is extended by three months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order.
