

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No.29875 of 2017(O&M)
Date of Decision:17.7.2018

Ravinder Singh

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

... Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJIV NARAIN RAINA

Present: Mr.Neeraj Gupta, Advocate for the petitioner

RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (Oral)

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner and perused the paper-book.

No case is made out for interference in the selection to the posts of Taxation Inspector. The petitioner was a candidate from ESM (General) category for which 14 vacancies were advertised. The petitioner's name does not figure in the list of successful candidates for the written examination. On the asking of this Court, Ms.Shruti Jain Goyal, DAG, Haryana who is present in this Court appears and submits that the interviews for the post of Taxation Inspectors have already been concluded on 6.12.2017. The petition was filed in 2017 and has suffered many adjournments sought by the counsel for the petitioner and at one stage, this petition was dismissed in default of appearance and for non-prosecution. I find no equity in favour of the petitioner which may justify interference by this Court in exercise of its equitable and discretionary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. No prejudice or substantial injustice has been done to the petitioner since he has not made the cut on merit.

Consequently, the writ petition is dismissed in limine.
