National Insurance Company Ltd.Appellant

Vs.

Rupesh Arjun Pawar and othersRespondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE RITU BAHRI

Present:- Mr.Neeraj Khanna, Advocate, for the appellant.

Mr.Yowan Sharma, Advocate, for respondent No.1.

RITU BAHRI, J. (ORAL)

Present appeal has been preferred by the appellant/Insurance Company (for short 'the appellant'), against award dated 18.02.2013, passed by the learned Motor Accident Claims Tribunal, Panchkula (for short, 'the Tribunal') on the short ground that claimant was working in Army and he had suffered amputation of his three toe(left) i.e. 3,4 and 5 and his medical expenses was reimbursed by the authorities and hence lump sum compensation of Rs.3,25,000/- on account of future prospect has been wrongly granted to the claimants.

This ground is liable to be rejected even on the medical reimbursement was made to him because amputation of three toes has been duly proved by leading cogent evidence and compensation granted to the claimants is not on the higher side. As such, the present appeal is dismissed being devoid of any merits.
