Versus

Ch. Charan Singh Hisar Agriculture University, Hisar and another

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARSIMRAN SINGH SETHI

Present: Mr. Sumer Singh, Advocate for
Mr. J.P. Jangu, Advocate for the petitioner.

Harsimran Singh Sethi, J.(Oral)

In the present writ petition, the petitioner is claiming pensionary benefits on account of the services rendered by her husband. It has been averred in the petition that the husband of the petitioner had 25 years of service when he unfortunately died on 05.08.2017.

In respect of the claim, the petitioner has stated to have filed representations (Annexure P-2(Colly)). Further the petitioner has issued a legal notice (Annexure P-4) through the counsel on 30.11.2017 for the relief, which is being prayed in the present writ petition.

Learned counsel for the petitioner states that neither the representations nor the legal notice have been decided by the respondents so far. Learned counsel further states that he will be satisfied, in case the present writ petition is disposed of giving directions to the concerned authorities to decide her claim as made vide Annexure P-2(Colly) as well as in the legal notice (Annexure P-4).

In view of the request made by learned counsel for the petitioner, the present writ petition is disposed of directing the competent authority, to whom the representations/legal notice have been issued, to decide the same by passing a speaking order in accordance with law, within a period of three months from the date of receipt of certified copy of this order, if not already decided.

In case the petitioner is found entitled to any monetary benefits, the same should also be paid to the legal heirs within a next period of three months.

It is made clear that this Court has not expressed any opinion on the merits of the case or the entitlement of the petitioner in respect of the claim.

The petition stands disposed of accordingly.
