The petitioner has invoked the extra ordinary writ jurisdiction of this Court seeking issuance of directions to respondent Nos. 4 to 6 as also No 9 not to forcibly and illegally interfere in the peaceful possession of the land which is alleged to be under the ownership of the petitioner. Further directions have been sought to restrain respondent Nos. 1 to 4 for making any changes in the revenue record pertaining to Khasra No. 79. Yet another direction sought is for respondent No.7 to restore back possession of 2 marlas of land out of Khasra No.79 situated at village Fatehgarh Nihal,

District Jalandhar.

Counsel for the parties have been heard at length.

It is a case where the petitioner has himself averred that a suit for grant of permanent injunction restraining the Gram Panchayat and other persons from digging earth as also changing nature of the agricultural land in question already stands instituted.

Counsel concedes that civil proceedings that already stands initiated are in respect of the same very land for which directions have been sought in the instant writ petition.

Accordingly while declining to interfere in the instant writ petition, liberty is granted to the petitioner to pursue his civil remedies in accordance with law.

Disposed of.
