Through the instant civil writ petition filed under Articles 226 and 227 of the Constitution of India, the petitioners seek, inter alia, issuance of a writ in the nature of mandamus for directing the respondents to consider the case of the petitioners for appointment to the post of Inspector Audit.

The grievance of the petitioners is that the meritorious reserved category candidates had not been shifted to general category, however, it has been submitted by the learned State counsel that now meritorious reserved category candidates have been shifted to general category and revised merit list has been drawn on 04.05.2018.

Learned counsel for the petitioners states that as the needful has been done, the grievance of the petitioners stands fully redressed.

In view of the submissions made, the Court feels that the present petition has been rendered infructuous.

Dismissed as having been rendered infructuous.
