RAJIV NARAIN RAINA, J. (Oral)

In Duryodhan Sahu & Others vs. Jitendra Kumar Mishra and others, 1998 (7) SCC 273, the Supreme Court held that there cannot be Public Interest Litigation in service disputes. The petitioner is a private person disputing the date of birth of respondent Policeman who now stands retired from service voluntarily. The petitioner has no locus standi to move the Writ Court and may seek his remedy, if any, elsewhere in accordance with law.

In view of the above, the writ petition is dismissed.
