DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

Reply has been filed by learned State counsel in the Court today and the same is taken on record.

The petitioner has approached this Court by way of filing the present petition for grant of parole to attend the marriage of his daughter which is scheduled on 25.03.2018.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that petitioner undertakes to abide by all the terms and conditions to be imposed by this Court or by the jail authorities. He has neither misused any concession of parole nor he has committed any jail offence.

Learned counsel for the respondents opposed the submissions made by learned counsel for the petitioner as the petitioner has been sentenced on four occasions for committing jail offences and no application was moved before the jail authorities.

Keeping in view the submissions made by learned counsel for the parties and by considering the fact that the marriage is scheduled on 25.03.2018, the present petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.3 to consider the present petition as application/representation and take necessary action in accordance with law. In case any apprehension is there that the petitioner may commit offence, he be allowed to attend the marriage in police custody. The necessary exercise be done within a period of one week from the date of receipt of copy of this order.
