DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (Oral)

Earlier the petitioner filed CWP No.18236 of 2014, which was dismissed by this Court by passing a speaking order dated 04.09.2014 with liberty to the petitioner to pursue his grievance before an appropriate forum in either one of the modes i.e. to apply to the Legal Services Authority to recall the order or to file suit, if permissible. Petitioner filed civil suit which was dismissed. Thereafter, appeal filed by him was also dismissed. It has been stated that RSA is still pending. The petitioner has filed the present petition in spite of dismissal of CWP No.18236 of 2014 and RSA is still pending. A query has been put to learned counsel for the petitioner as to how the second writ petition is maintainable when earlier writ petition had been dismissed but no legal argument has been raised. Second writ petition is not maintainable when the earlier writ petition has been dismissed.

Dismissed.

However, the petitioner is at liberty to avail the appropriate remedy.
