for respondents No.3 & 4.

AJAY KUMAR MITTAL, J. (Oral)

The challenge in this writ petition is to the auction notice dated 14th March, 2018 (Annexure P-4), whereby, the respondent-Bank had initiated the action for the auction of the immovable properties mentioned in the said notice.

2. Learned counsel for respondents No.1 & 2 submitted that the date for holding of e-auction has already expired, which was fixed for 30th March, 2018 and no bid was received.

3. On the aforesaid premises, it was urged by learned counsel for respondents No.1 & 2 that the writ petition has been rendered infructuous and may be disposed of as such.

4. Ordered accordingly.

5. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner was a guarantor and is prepared to discharge the entire liability in respect thereof.

Accordingly, it was stated that the petitioner will pursue her remedy either before by approaching the Bank.

6. Needless to say, it shall be open to the petitioner to take recourse to the remedies as may be available to her, in accordance with law.
