(P-6 to P-8), vide which the same benefit has already been granted to the similarly situated employees with further directing the respondents to decide his legal notice dated 17.11.2017 (P-11) and representation/reminder (P-5 & P-5A) along with interest @ 18% per annum.

2. The contention of learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner has joined respondent-department as Driver on 02.01.1987 and he became entitled for the release of benefit of 23 years promotional increment on 02.01.2010 but no such benefit was granted to him till date though the similar relief has already been granted to the other employees of the State of Punjab. The petitioner stood retired on 30.04.2015 on attaining the age of superannuation i.e. 58 years. During his service, he moved representation dated 01.03.2011 (P-5) and reminder dated 20.11.2011 (P-5A) to respondent No.4 but till date, no benefit has been granted to him. The petitioner being aggrieved of the non-disbursal of the benefits of 23 years promotional increment was constrained to serve legal notice upon the respondents on 17.11.2017 (P-11), but till date no response has been received. Learned counsel further submits that the petitioner feels satisfied in case a direction is given to respondent No.2, to decide the legal notice (P-11), within a stipulated period.

3. Without expressing any opinion on merits of the case but considering the aforesaid aspects as has been unfolded by the learned counsel for the petitioner, instant petition is disposed of with a direction to respondent No.2 to look into the grievances unfolded by the petitioner in legal notice dated 17.11.2017 (P-11) and take a conscious decision within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order, particularly in the light of the instructions as well as the judgments
