The grievance of the petitioners in the instant writ petition is that the Debts Recovery Tribunal-I, Chandigarh has erroneously decided OA No.2838 of 2017 filed by Andhra Bank against them.

In our considered view, the question whether the said order has been passed legally or it suffers from any kind of infirmity, can be effectively determined by the Appellate Tribunal.

With liberty aforementioned, the writ petition is disposed of. However, if Review is maintainable, the petitioners may avail such remedy also.
