PRESENT Mr.Amar Singh Sandhu, Advocate,
for the appellant.

None for the respondent.

M.M.S. BEDI, J. (ORAL)

Aggrieved by the decree of divorce granted to the respondent-wife, the husband has preferred this appeal.

During pendency of the appeal, the respondent-wife has expired as per the statement of counsel for the appellant.

In view of above, the appeal is dismissed as having rendered infructuous subject to all just exceptions with liberty of revival of the appeal by any party in case the information supplied to the Court is found to be wrong, within a period of two years.
