State of Haryana and others

...Respondents

Coram: Hon'ble Mr. Justice Rakesh Kumar Jain

Present: Mr.Rajat Mor, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr.Saurabh Mohunta, DAG Haryana.

Rakesh Kumar Jain, J.

This petition is filed for seeking parole for a period of three months on the ground that the petitioner is seriously ill.

In brief, the petitioner is presently lodged in Central Jail-1, Hisar to suffer sentence for a period of seven years. The petitioner is getting treatment from the Jail Hospital. He was diagnosed as a case of alcoholic liver disease with portal hypertension with oesophageal ulcer (more than 5 mm) with low grade varices with hiatus hernia. It is submitted that the petitioner is not getting proper treatment in the jail.

Counsel for the respondent has submitted that the medical report of the petitioner has been prepared by the Medical Officer, Central Jail-1, Hisar in which it is mentioned that the petitioner is being provided treatment prescribed from P.G.I M.S. Rohtak on timely and regular basis. He is on regular follow up from P.G.I M.S. Rohtak. However, it is also not denied that because of the indigestion of food, the petitioner is constantly losing weight but his general condition is stable which is otherwise deteriorating day-by-day despite taking special diet prescribed by senior Dietitian at P.G.I M.S Rohtak. It is also not denied that the petitioner has not been released on parole earlier. However, taking into consideration the illness of the petitioner for which not only he requires the expert treatment from a good hospital but also the rest at home with good diet to recover the loss of weight because of indigestion.

Therefore, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on parole for four weeks subject to furnishing of bail bonds to the satisfaction of District Magistrate, Hisar.

Copy of the order be given dasti.
