Perusal of file shows that the instant appeal was filed in the year 2012 and, thereafter, has been taken on Board nine times. Out of which on two occasions, the appeal was adjourned on account of non-appearance of counsel for the appellant and on six occasions on request of learned counsel for the appellant.

From the above factual position, it is evident that the appellant or his counsel are not seriously interested in pursuing the instant appeal.

Dismissed in default for want of prosecution.
