

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

R.S.A. No. 5404 of 2012

DATE OF DECISION :- December 10, 2018

Karan Singh

...Appellant

Versus

Chander Singh and others

...Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE H.S. MADAAN

Present:- Mr. Vivek Suri, Advocate for the appellant.

Mr. Ajay Ghangas, Advocate for respondents no. 1 and 2.

After arguing for some time, learned counsel for the appellant submitted that he be allowed to withdraw the present appeal granting him liberty to approach the revenue authorities seeking partition in accordance with law. He further submits that it be clarified that the judgments and decrees passed by the Courts below shall not prejudice the rights during the partition proceedings.

Learned counsel for respondents no. 1 and 2 states that the Court may pass any order in accordance with law with regard to the prayer made by learned counsel for the appellant.

Heard.

The dispute is between co-sharers in the joint land. It would be proper and appropriate if they go in for partition.

Therefore, the prayer made by learned counsel for the appellant is accepted. The present appeal is allowed to be withdrawn.

The appellant may approach the revenue authorities seeking partition. The judgments and decrees passed by the Courts below shall however not cause any prejudice to the appellant in those proceedings.
