RAJESH BINDAL.J.

The interim order passed by the learned Single Judge dated 18.05.2017 has been challenged by filing the present intra-court appeal. Vide impugned order, the learned Single Judge directed for execution of the award passed by the Labour Court.

While issuing notice of motion in the present appeal, this Court passed the following order:-

“If the appellant deposits a sum of ₹ 2.5 lakhs with the executing Court within a period of two weeks from today, the remaining execution shall remain stayed till the matter is fixed before the learned Single Judge.”

Learned counsel for the respondent workman fairly submitted that the aforesaid interim order be made absolute as the parties would argue the writ petition pending before the Learned Single Judge on merits.

After hearing learned counsel for the parties, the interim order dated 02.06.2017 is made absolute.

The appeal stands disposed of, accordingly.
