AT CHANDIGARH

LPA No.129 of 2017 (O&M)
in CWP No.22990 of 2016
Date of decision: 02.04.2018

Naseeb Kaur and another

..... Appellants

Versus

State of Punjab and others

.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH BINDAL.
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE B.S. WALIA.

Present: Mr. Ashok Giri, Advocate for the appellants.

Rajesh Bindal, J.

Order passed by the learned Single Judge dismissing the writ petition has been impugned by filing the present intra-court appeal.

After hearing learned counsel for the appellants, we find that the relief claimed for by the appellants is totally misconceived.

The prayer made in the writ petition was that the appellants being daughters of deceased Fateh Singh who died in World War II be allotted land or given cash incentives. Fateh Singh had sacrificed his life in World War II (1939-1945). In support of the said claim, the appellants have not placed on record any policy framed by the Government to show that the soldiers, who had died in World War II prior to the Independence of India, were granted any benefit by the Government of India. In the absence thereof, no direction as such could be issued to the respondents to grant any benefit to the appellants.

Accordingly, the appeal has no merit and the same is dismissed.
Consequently, the application seeking condonation of delay in filing the appeal is also dismissed.
