Order passed by the learned Single Judge dated 15.03.2017 has been impugned by filing the present intra-court appeal. Along with the present appeal, an application seeking condonation of 58 days' delay in filing thereof has also been filed.

Learned Single Judge dismissed the writ petition filed by the appellant recording that the award of the Labour Court had already been complied with, as even during the pendency of the writ petition, the workman had been re-instated and was working with the department. Entire wages for the period from October 20, 2000 to January 31, 2017 has also been paid to him and presently, his services have also been regularized as he had been working with the department from April 1976 and worked upto 29.09.1990. Violation of Sections 25-F and 25-G of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 was clearly made out.

Keeping in the aforesaid facts on record, in our opinion there is no error in the order passed by the learned Single Judge. The appeal is without any merit.

Accordingly, the appeal as well as application seeking condonation of delay in filing thereof are dismissed.
