Vide order dated 17.1.2018, a petition under Section 9 of the Hindu Marriage Act, for restitution of conjugal rights filed by the respondent-husband was allowed.

Doubting the bona fide of the respondent and apprehending danger, the appellant-wife preferred the present appeal.

Today, the appellant as well as the respondent are present. They have confirmed that they are living together along with two minor children.

In view of the statement of the appellant that at present
