....Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJESH BINDAL
HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE B.S. WALIA

Present: Mr.R.K.Arora, Advocate for the appellant.

RAJESH BINDAL, J.

Order passed by the learned Single Judge partly allowing the writ petition has been impugned in the present intra-court appeal. The writ petition was partially allowed setting aside the impugned order vide which the appellant was removed from service, however, she was denied wages for the period she had not worked on principle of "No work No pay". The appellant was removed from service on the ground that she had filed wrong affidavit regarding her being not involved in any criminal case whereas trial in one FIR was pending against her which was later on disposed of as compromised. There is a delay of 428 days in filing the appeal and 197 days in re-filing thereof. The only reason assigned is that father of the applicant-appellant was not well. That can hardly be accepted as a reason to condone the delay of 428 days in filing the appeal. Therefore, the application seeking condonation of delay is dismissed. Consequently, the appeal is also dismissed.
