CM-2641-LPA-2018

For the reasons set out in the application, which is duly supported by an affidavit, the same is allowed. Consequently, delay of 134 days in filing the accompanying appeal is condoned.

Application stands disposed of.

LPA No. 997 of 2018

Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the learned Single Judge failed to take into account that the petitioner-respondent herein, who was claiming appointment under physically handicapped quota, had not even produced the disability certificate. It is further submitted that according to the pleadings of the petitioner-respondent himself, the disability certificate produced was incomplete, as it did not specify to which category of physically disabled he belonged.

LPA No. 997 of 2018 (O&M)

However, from the impugned order passed by the learned Single Judge, we do not find that this point was ever raised or pressed before the learned Single Judge. Once the issue was not raised before the learned Single Judge, We cannot go into the said question in an intra-court appeal.

Considering the aforesaid facts, we dispose of this appeal, with liberty to the appellant to approach the learned Single Judge, by moving an appropriate application for redressal of the grievances raised in this appeal.
