This appeal has been filed against the concurrent judgments of the Courts below whereby recovery suit filed by respondent No.1 was allowed.

With the intervention of the learned counsel for the parties the dispute arising out of the present suit has been settled. Both the counsel has obtained telephonically instructions from their respective clients. Counsel for the appellant states that the appellant is ready to pay a sum of Rs.1 lakh in full and final settlement. Counsel for the respondents has accepted that but prayed that time should be fixed within which the appellant would pay and in case the appellant does not pay amount within stipulated time the appeal should be deemed to be dismissed.

Counsel for the appellant states that the appellant is not a rich man and seeks two months time to make the payment.

In the circumstances, the appeal is disposed of with clear understanding that the appellant would pay a sum of Rs. 1 lakh within two months from today to the respondent in full and final settlement of present claim. However in case the amount is not paid/deposited before the Executing Court within two months from today, the appeal would be deemed to be dismissed.
