Versus

..... Respondents

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE AJAY TEWARI

Present : Mr. Parmod Parmar, Advocate for the appellant.

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This appeal has been filed against the concurrent judgments of the Courts below whereby it was held that the respondents were in the possession of the 7 Marlas of land and injunction was granted restraining the appellant from dispossessing them except in due course of action.

Learned counsel has argued that this is a case where respondents have encroached upon the temple land and it would be highly undesirable if such persons are to succeed in their malicious design. That may be so, but once the respondents were able to prove that they were in possession of 7 Marlas of land the only option before the appellant would be to dispossess them as per law and this is precisely what the Court have said.

I regret to show my inability to interfere with the judgments of the Courts below. The appeal stands dismissed.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
