Main case.

In the present appeal, grievance of the appellant is that respondent has been extended the benefit of military service towards pensionary benefits by the trial as well as appellate courts. Learned counsel for the appellant submitted that respondent's nature of appointment during 3 spells in different organization of the State of Punjab including department is not forthcoming. Therefore, trial as well as appellate courts have not appreciated the nature of appointment of the respondent. Even in the present appeal, appellants have not produced any material to show that nature of the appointment of the respondent in the respective organization was ad hoc or work-charged employee so as to interfere with the trial and appellate courts' decision. Accordingly, appellant has not made out a case. Appeal stands dismissed.
