Rekha Mittal, J (Oral)

As per report of Registry, due to oversight, notice has been issued to the respondents.

Mr. Mazlish Khan, Advocate has caused appearance on behalf of the respondents.

The appellant did not comply with order dated 29.08.2018 with regard to deposit of Rs.20,000.00 towards litigation expenses.

There is no representation on behalf of the appellant either to seek extension of time for necessary deposit or to say something in the matter.

As notice was issued limited to explore possibility of an amicable settlement and the appellant has failed to comply with order dated 29.08.2018, he cannot seek indulgence of this Court. Accordingly, the appeal stands disposed of.

As per order dated 29.08.2018, notice to the respondent was to be issued after deposit of Rs.20,000.00 but the Registry has issued notice in a clear defiance of said order. Registrar (Judicial) is directed to seek explanation of the official concerned and put up the matter before the authority for taking action in the matter.
