.... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE P.B. BAJANTHRI

Present: Mr. B.D.Sharma, Advocate for the appellant.

P.B. BAJANTHRI, J. (ORAL)

In the instant appeal, appellant has questioned the validity of the orders of the trial as well as appellate courts dated 18.05.2016 and 15.05.2017 respectively. Perusal of para 13 of the trial court decree it is evident that appellant has been extended the retiral benefits except leave encashment and gratuity. Undisputedly appellant was facing disciplinary proceedings. Therefore, rightly respondents have withheld the leave encashment and gratuity. Learned counsel for the appellant submitted that during pendency of the proceedings inquiry was concluded in imposing penalty to the extent of 5% cut off in pension. In view of these developments and the fact that leave encashment and gratuity have been settled, present appeal do not survive for consideration.

Accordingly, appeal stands dismissed.
