Notice of motion has been issued. Learned State counsel has appeared and contested the instant petition.

I have heard learned counsel for the petitioner as well as learned State counsel and gone through the record.

From the record, I find that as per the allegations in the FIR, the present petitioner raised a lalkara and then took a brick from the street and threw it on the complainant which hit on left side of his head.

The said injury has been declared dangerous to life.

Learned State counsel has brought to the notice of this Court that the injured has already been discharged from the hospital. The petitioner was not armed with any deadly weapon.

The petitioner has been in custody since 18.11.2018. She is not required for any investigation or interrogation purposes as she is in judicial custody. The trial of case may take a long time. No useful purpose will be served by keeping the petitioner in custody till the final disposal of the case.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the present case; without discussing the facts in minute detail and without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, this criminal miscellaneous petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail subject to her furnishing personal bonds in the sum of ₹50,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
