CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A. B. CHAUDHARI

for the petitioners.

Ms. Anu Pal, DAG, Punjab.

Rule.

Heard forthwith with consent of counsel for the rival parties.

It is not in dispute that the grievance made by the petitioner in this writ petition has not been adjudicated by the competent authority, despite the judgment of the Division Bench of this Court in the case of Punjab Pradesh Congress Committee Versus State of Punjab and others, in CWP No.8290 of 2013 passed on 13.06.2013.

In our opinion, since the elections of the Gram Panchayat is to be held in the near future and the mandate of the aforesaid judgment is that the authority must adjudicate upon the grievances/representation of the concerned party(ies), we think it would be appropriate for the authority to decide the grievances/representation by passing a speaking order after granting opportunity of hearing.

In that view of the matter, we direct official respondents to hear and decide the representation by treating this petition as a representation and pass speaking order. Needless to say that the contesting parties in the present petition would also be heard by official respondents within a period of three days from today. The decision shall be given, in accordance with law, within one week thereafter and before the notification of the election is announced, whichever is earlier.

Copy of this order and copy of the petition shall be placed before official respondents by the petitioners.

The Rule stands disposed of with the direction as aforesaid.
