EDUCATION AND RESEARCH, CHANDIGARH AND ANOTHER

Present: Mr. Gursimran Singh Madaan, Advocate for the petitioner.
Mr. Abhishek K. Premi, Advocate for
Mr. Amit Jhanji, Advocate for the respondents.

Under the orders passed by this Court, cheque for a sum of Rs.9.72 lacs was deposited by the petitioner. However, subsequently, vide order dated 19.04.2018, since the writ petition itself was permitted to be withdrawn, a direction was issued that the cheque in question lying in deposit with the Registrar (Judicial) be returned to the petitioner.

Thereafter, office issued numerous letters to the petitioner to collect the cheque but she failed to appear. Learned counsel for the petitioner informs that on account of serious illness petitioner is not in a position to come in person to collect the cheque and the office be directed to return the same to her attorney.

In the circumstances, we deem it appropriate that learned counsel for the petitioner Sh.Gursimran Singh Madaan, may accept the cheque on behalf of the petitioner and transmit the same to her. In the circumstances we direct the office to hand-over the cheque for a sum of Rs.9.72 lacs lying in deposit with the Registrar (Judicial) to Sh.Gursimran Singh Madaan, learned counsel for the petitioner.
