ORDER

19.02.2018

Petitioner is seeking parole for the reasons mentioned in the petition. One such reason is to provide medical treatment for his ailing mother; it is also to maintain social ties. Status report is on record. The address of the petitioner has been verified. The nominal roll has also been requisitioned. This reflects that the petitioner is a convict under Section 302 of the IPC. He has been sentenced to undergo life imprisonment. As on 16.02.2018, he has undergone incarceration of more than 11 years which includes the remissions earned by him. He had last availed of the benefit of furlough between 01.05.2017 to 22.05.2017.

This is a fit case where the prayer made in the petition should be granted. Accordingly, petitioner is admitted to parole for a period of four weeks to be counted from the date of his release on furnishing of his personal bond in the sum of Rs 10,000/- with one surety of the like amount to the satisfaction of the concerned Jail Superintendent with condition that he shall appear before the concerned SHO on every Monday of every week. He shall also furnish his latest residential address and mobile number to the concerned investigating officer.

Petition disposed of in the above terms.

A copy of this order be sent to the Jail Superintendant concerned for intimation to the petitioner.
