08.01.2018

Petitioner is seeking parole for the reasons as mentioned in the petition. One reason is that he wants to match look for a suitable match for his marriageable younger sister. The fact of the age of the sister of the petitioner stands verified by the Investigating Officer. The application of the petitioner has been rejected by the Competent Authority on the ground that the convict has recently availed 02 weeks furlough w.e.f.27.7.2017 to 11.8.2017. The earlier occasions when the petitioner had been granted both parole and furlough have been listed in his nominal roll. He has not misused the liberty which has been granted to him. The petitioner is a convict under Section 302 of the IPC and Sections 25/27 of the Arms Act. He is suffering life imprisonment. Life imprisonment means imprisonment for rest of his life. The petitioner as on date has undergone incarceration of more than 12 years. His jail conduct is satisfactory.

Keeping in view the past conduct of the petitioner as also the fact that on earlier occasions the parole and furlough granted to him have not been misused, this is a fit case where the prayer made by the petitioner should be granted. Accordingly, the petitioner be released on parole for a period of three weeks to be counted from the date of his release on his furnishing a personal bond in the sum of Rs.5000/- with one surety of like amount subject to the satisfaction of Jail Superintendant concerned with condition that the petitioner shall report to the local SHO on every Monday of each week and surrender immediately himself to the Jail on the expiry of the aforementioned parole period of three weeks. He will give his contact number as also his latest residential address to the Investigating Officer.

Petition disposed of.

A copy of the order be sent to Jail Superintendant concerned for intimation to the petitioner.
