CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE S.P.GARG

ORDER

% 23.01.2018

1. Present writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been preferred by the petitioner seeking parole for three months to maintain social ties and curb inner stress and depression. Status report not filed.

2. I have heard the learned counsel for the parties and have examined the file. On perusal of the file it reveals that the petitioner was convicted under Sections 376/506 IPC and sentenced to undergo Rigorous Imprisonment for ten years with fine. Crl.A.No.83/2012 was disposed of on 09.02.2015. Nominal roll reveals that from 7.12.2017 to 22.12.2017, the petitioner was granted two weeks furlough by DG(P). Before that also, he was granted furlough thrice in 2017.

Apparently, there is no reasonable ground to grant parole to the petitioner on the similar circumstance after availing furlough till 22.12.2017.

3. Considering the facts and circumstances, I find no merit in the present petition and it is dismissed.

S.P.GARG, J.
