These writ petitions had come up for hearing on 22nd May, 2018 and at the request of the counsel for the petitioner were adjourned for today i.e. 23rd May, 2018. Counsel who is to argue the matter has not appeared and

Ms. Amrita Joshi, Advocate states that the counsel for the petitioner wants to withdraw from the present case. We are not aware whether the procedure prescribed under the Delhi High Court Rules for withdrawal has been followed. Counsel for the respondent Directorate of Revenue Intelligence has submitted that show cause notice has been issued and the petitioners in spite of undertaking and directions of the Court have not appeared for recording of statement. The learned counsel appearing ^{for the petitioner} states that she is not in a position to argue the writ petitions. The writ petitions are dismissed for non-prosecution.
