Section 34 of the IPC at Police Station Hauz Khas qua the incident dated 22.10.2017. The second FIR i.e. FIR No.0375/2017 of even date registered at the same Police Station was under the provisions of Sections 452/323/34 of the IPC and this was on the complaint of Ms. 'HT'. All the parties are present in person. It is stated that the parties have settled their disputes. The presence of the complainant and the accused persons has been identified by the respective Investigating Officers who are present in Court. In terms of the settlement, it is stated that the parties have no dispute left against one another. All the parties are in fact closely related except Kavita who is the friend of Yashika, one of the petitioners in W.P.(CrI.) No.479/2018. In terms of the aforementioned settlement, the parties do not wish to press these complaints any further. The complaints are yet under investigation and charge-sheet has not yet been filed. It would be an exercise in futility to continue with the proceedings in view of the aforementioned narration of facts.

Accordingly, to secure the ends of justice, FIR No.0374/2017 registered under Sections 354/342/323 read with Section 34 of the IPC and FIR No.0375/2017 registered under Sections 452/323/34 of the IPC at Police Station Hauz Khas and all proceedings emanating thereto are quashed.
