2017. The petitioners have filed replies to the said show cause notice (s) on February 28, 2018. She on instructions also state, no final orders have been passed on the show cause notice (s) dated September 19, 2017. She state, the replies filed by the petitioners shall be considered and speaking orders shall be passed and if the petitioners are still aggrieved, the petitioners would be within their right to approach this Court.

At this stage, Mr. Gupta, Id. Counsel for the petitioners state that even though the replies filed are very brief, the respondents may consider the writ petition as the replies to the show cause notice (s). This suggestion of Mr. Gupta is acceptable to the learned counsel for the respondent No.2. The Competent Authority, while considering the replies dated February 28, 2018 shall consider the writ petitions and the documents annexed thereto as supplementary replies of the petitioner^{Udaa} to the show cause notice (s) dated September 19, 2017 and pass speaking orders as expeditiously as possible. If the petitioners are still aggrieved with the orders to be passed by the respondent No.2, liberty is with the petitioners to seek such remedy as available in law. Petitions and the connected applications are disposed of.
