(a) FIR No. 559/2017 under Sections 307/34 IPC registered at P.S. Maurya Enclave. Mr. Naresh Kumar @ Deni and Mr. Desh Raj @ Deshu are respondent ns. 2 and 3 in Crl. M.C. No. 1228/2018 and they are petitioners in Crl. M.C. No. 1689/2018. They are injured in the aforesaid FIR.

(b) FIR No. 560/2017 under Sections 341/307/34 IPC registered at P.S. Maurya Enclave on the complaint of respondent no. 3 Mr. Suraj @ Golu in Crl. M.C. No. 1689/2018. Mr. Suresh Kumar and Mr. Suraj @ Golu are injured in the aforesaid FIR and accused/petitioner nos. 1 and 2 in Crl. M.C. 1228/2018.

It is submitted that Mr. Suresh Kumar, Mr. Suraj @ Golu, Mr. Arjun Kumar, Mr. Naresh Kumar @ Deni and Mr. Desh Raj @ Deshu are neighbours. A quarrel took place between them on some trivial issues, wherein both the parties sustained injuries.

Learned APP submits that Naresh Kumar @ Deny had sustained grievous injuries; therefore, both the aforesaid FIRs may not be quashed.

Mr. Suresh Kumar, Mr. Suraj @ Golu, Mr. Naresh Kumar @ Deni and Mr. Desh Raj @ Deshu (injured persons) are present in Court and have been identified by SI Devi Lal of police station Maurya Enclave. They submit that they have settled their disputes amicably and are not willing to pursue their respective FIRs.

Keeping in mind the fact that a quarrel ensued between the neighbours on some trivial matter and they have settled the matter voluntarily, in my view, no fruitful purpose would be served to keep the criminal proceedings pending. Accordingly, in the interest of justice both the FIRs, that is, FIR No. 559/2017 under Sections 307/34 IPC and FIR No. 560/2017 under Sections 341/307/34 IPC, both registered at P.S. Maurya Enclave and the consequent proceedings emanating therefrom are quashed.

Both the petitions are disposed of in the above terms. Dasti.
