1. The instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India read with Section 482 Cr.P.C. has been filed on behalf of the petitioner for seeking furlough for a period of one month. Status report filed. It is taken on record.

2. Nominal Roll dated 17.03.2018 reveals that the petitioner was convicted under Sections 307/34 IPC and was sentenced to undergo RI for seven years with fine ₹ 10,000/-. Crl.A.1162/2016 was disposed of by this Court on 12.07.2017. Nominal Roll further reveals that the petitioner has already undergone four years, ten months and four days incarceration besides remission for six months and three days as on 16.03.2018. It further reveals that he is not involved in any other criminal case and is not a previous convict. His overall jail conduct is satisfactory. Earlier he was granted parole and there are no allegations of its misuse.

3. In the interest of justice and for the reasons mentioned in the writ petition, the petitioner is granted two weeks furlough from the date of his release, on his furnishing personal bond in the sum of ₹25,000/- with one surety in the like amount to the satisfaction of the Trial Court. After completion of furlough period, the petitioner shall surrender before the Jail Superintendent.

4. Writ petition stands disposed of in the above terms.
