This is an application filed by the applicant/appellant seeking condonation of 34 days delay in filing the application seeking restoration of the writ petition. For the reasons stated in the application, the application is allowed. Delay of 34 days in filing the restoration application is condoned.

The application stands disposed of.

CM.APPL 50803/2018(restoration)

This is an application filed by the applicant/appellant seeking restoration of the writ petition. For the reasons stated in the application, the application is allowed. The writ petition is restored to its original number and filed.

The application stands disposed of.

This is a petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India filed by the petitioners. Ms.Rani Chhabra, counsel for the petitioners, submits that the grievance of the petitioners is that their area has not been surveyed. Mr.Sri Harsha Peechara, learned counsel for the NDMC, submits that the surveys have been conducted. However, he assures that the petitioners would also be covered in the survey and all the supporting documents would also be accepted as provided by them.

In view of the submissions made, the writ petition and all the pending applications are disposed of.
