ORDER

% 25.10.2018

Learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission to withdraw the petition with liberty to file a separate petition, if advised, after giving particulars of the property, details of the owners and other materials required for identifying the property and the persons who are in unauthorized occupation or conducting encroachment into the property or to whom the government accommodation has been made without their being any right or entitlement in their favour.

The petition is accordingly, dismissed as withdrawn.
