dated 10.10.2017 in relation thereto categorically indicates that apart from other accused persons therein the petitioner has been acquitted for the offences punishable under Sections 399/402 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and under Section 25 Arms Act, 1959, which is also affirmed by the Investigating Officer.

Learned counsel for the petitioner in reply to a specific Court query submits that the requisite bond under Section 437A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 has already been furnished.

In view of the averments made on behalf of the State affirming the aspect of the judgment dated 10.10.2017 acquitting the petitioner in relation to the FIR No. 64/09, registered at PS Crime Branch, Delhi under Sections 399/402 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860 and under Section 25 Arms Act, 1959 and also the statement of the Investigating Officer in reply to a specific Court query to the effect that no appeal has been filed against the same and the submission of the learned APP for the State that there is no appeal contemplated against the said judgment, there is nothing more that survives in the present petition.

The petition is disposed of.
